Dear praying friends and family,

Bulgarovo- Josh has been working for a Turkish family a few days a week during this summer. He has asked our church in Karnobat to pray for him that Lord would use him to be a witness to this family. So I'm passing this request to you all as well. It is a blessing to see him grow in the Lord and desire to be used. The husbands name is James and he and his wife Irena have 4 children. Last week their oldest son Joseph went into a coma as a result of his diabetic problems. He is fine now but things could have been worse. Please remember this family in prayer that they would come to repentance and faith in Christ. They are professing muslims.

Grandma Yovka, as we call her, is very faithful. She has been trying to get one of her neighbor friends, Slavka, to come to our little home meeting with her.

Karnobat- The work is going good.... We usually have about 20 people every service. We have 2 teenagers at this church besides our own teens. Pray God will raise up more youth in this challenging place. Bro. Acen Manolov... 18 yrs old is zealous and endeavors to be a witness to all about him. I'm greatly encouraged by his zeal and also that of our own kids.

We are grateful to the Lord for a new supporter from Bolivar, TN. God bless them and you all for your prayers and faithful support to the work in Beautiful Bulgaria.
