December 2018

Вече последен месец на година- Last month of the year already

This year has really gone fast.... I'm sure it has for you all as well. Time fly's when you're having fun and staying busy.

We have had more visitors this year from the US than any other year. In August Missy's sister Hanna and her little boy was with us. In September Frank and Cathy Townsend from Columbia, SC was here for a short visit then in November 2 to 14 Bro. Baker our Pastor and three others were with us as you already know.

I mentioned last month about reporting to you of some new and exciting opportunities. Because and through our trip to Greece and other Bulgarian connections from there Bro. Kolio from the Karnobat church and I went to visit a family about an hour and half away. We spent an evening and half of the next day with them. That evening was a church meeting were I preached along with the other Pastor, his name is Velin Mitev. In the near future we plan to get with them again and other local pastors of the area. They along with German missionary Michael Schwitzky (we visited them in Crete, more than 30 years in Crete... our home church supports this ministry... The Shelter) desire to start up Bible School for the local Gypsy/Bulgarian pastors and serious Christians! Bro. Schwitzky has already spoken to me about helping out with the teaching of these men in the Bible School. So pray about this as it is a much needed thing here in Bulgaria. They are looking for a building now.

We finished up the month with laboring with Bro. Nick Maulucci and his sons in the capitol city of Sofia. On Thursday Nov. 29th we completed the canvassing of the books of John/Romans in Sofia. It was more than a month long task with more than 3000 man hours and a total of 305,000 books distributed. Only eternity will reveal the fruit of these labors in its entirety. However we are grateful to our Lord for the privilege to labor for the gospel here and now. Thank you to all that pray and support us financially. God bless you and I pray you have a wonderful time with your family and close friends as the holidays and New Year quickly approach. Talk to you next year!

Sincerely yours in Christ our King,
The Kessler's
