December 2019

Dear Praying friends and loved ones,

Another year nearly gone! I can hardly believe 2020 is upon us. We will be calling and setting up meetings to all we did not get to in 2016, Lord willing.

Hope you had a good Thanks giving with family and friends. We spent the occasion with some of the folks from our church in Karnobat.

As some of you know already my dad, John F. Kessler passed away on November 18, Monday. He was 64 years old. Proverbs 17:6- Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. This verse truly rings personal for me now. I was able to be in America to honor my dad along with my brothers at his funeral. He was a good father and best of all he was saved. One day we are looking forward to seeing him again with all our loved ones that have gone before us. What a family reunion that will be!

First week of December Josh and I were with Bro. Maulucci and his family to give out more books! We were not there all week this time but in all we gave out books in 3 cities, 16 villages and passed out over 9000 books! May God touch the hearts and spirits of these people through the glorious gospel.

Karnobat- I'm pleased to see people attending services and giving generously. Recently there has been three extra young people that have been faithful. Subean, Borislava and her younger sister Valintina. Please pray for continued spiritual growth in this work. God bless you all for your work and labour of love, Hebrews 6:10.
