Karnobat- This past Sunday morning after the message I asked the congregation if there was anyone that wanted to give their life to Christ. One young man, named Stephen, immediately raised his hand. I had him come up front and confess his desire to follow the Lord and be saved. It was very encouraging for us to see this man make a confession for salvation.

Bulgarovo- I am seriously considering for now at least to stop having services here on Sunday evenings. There are only three people from the village coming and sometimes only one older lady. I think that our labours and concentration should be more upon the work in Karnobat. So this is a need that we have right now for prayer here.

Chukarka- A couple weeks ago on a Wednesday afternoon I had the privilege to witness to a man named Radostin. He is the son of the lady whose house we are meeting in right now. He listened carefully and didn't oppose in the slightest. I'm praying for his salvation. Please pray with us for him.

Lastly- We as of December 2017 put in a request for another child to adopt. By the end of January we had an invitation to see a child. Yesterday on Kaitlin's birthday 02/06 we traveled the Vidin, Bulgaria (right on the Romania border) to see this little 1 year old boy. We have decided to start the process to adopt him. By God's grace and intervention we might be able to have a court date to settle the adoption sometime in March. We would appreciate your prayers concerning this. Also Joshua and his cousin Andrew are flying to Papua New Guinea to spend two months with their missionary grandparents, Wayne and Sue Fair. By the time most of you get this letter hopefully they will be there. Thank you all for your love and care for us and holding the ropes back home.

Sincerely in Christ,
The Kessler Family
