Dear Church Family,

Last month was an exciting one for us!

The man that I mentioned... Stoyan Madjarov! Well indeed I did meet with him. He is a 19 year old Bulgarian follower of the Lamb of God! After just a couple of hours talking I learned that he had gotten saved about a year ago when his mother had given him a Bible for his 18th birthday. He had tried visiting several other churches but they didn't preach Jesus Christ. So he was looking for likeminded people as himself with whom to fellowship... people who believe the Book and preach it. He was given a Bible portion actually while visiting a friend and so was able to send the response card to us (obviously not coincidence)! We met on August 8th and he followed the Lord in believer's baptism on the 11th. Along with Stoyan two men from our Karnobat church got baptized too... their names Kiril and Jordan and last but not least our middle daughter Alyssa also followed our Lord in this step of their faith. It was a beautiful day at this pond in the country. I was brought to tears as I spoke to the crowd assembled on the shore being humbled that I've had the privilege to baptize 8 people thus far here in beautiful Bulgaria, 2 of which were our own children! I wish I had room to elaborate on the testimonies of all four that were baptized and not just Stoyan as all have unique stories of their own.

The following Friday Stoyan and Alyssa were on the streets with us giving out the precious Word of God! I only mention them because they were baptized the Sunday before but there was our other daughters and little Chris too. Also Bro. Maulucci's kids with us to whom God is working in their lives.

First week in September we were in South West Bulgaria. Praise the Lord we gave out 10,000 plus books in this area of the Country. We pray that there will be more Stoyan's to come. Do pray for him please as he had to relocate because he has started University. We are staying in touch with him however. Chris's US citizenship application is being reviewed so we must wait. All is well... I pray with you as well... God bless you all!

In the name of our Lord Jesus,
Daniel Kessler and Family
